

12 History

- Students will recognise and appreciate the diversity of human experiences and develop critical thinking skill to improve their views of the world around us.
- Students will develop skills to evaluate the sources, methods, motivations and interpretations behind historical narratives.
- Students will learn how to craft and present convincing and well supported documents.