

13 Journalism and Mass Communications

- Students can write a variety of mass media products, like news stories, press releases, and advertising copy.
- They can create and design documentary films, blogs, digital audio, digital video, digital photography.
- Students will be able to make effective presentations on a variety of topics in public sphere.
- Students will be able to work in the practical field of journalism.