

20 Sanskrit

- The subject provides a mental and cultural refinement to the learners.
- The subject provides a better syncretic view of culture and aesthetics.
- It orients the learners with grammatological principles of Sanskrit language which can open many new vistas in the job world.
- The learners learn to appreciate the multifaceted Indian classical culture in all its glory.