

21 Sociology

- Sociology provides initial knowledge about society, social life and social interaction.
- Students learn the methodology of research and communication and work with different organisations as research partner.
- Students can give various presentations on various sociological topics.
- Students are able to make critical analysis of social issues and learn to write detailed analytical report.