

22 Zoology

- Students will be able to gain expertise in the field of life sciences and communicate lessons of biological knowledge in both oral and written forms.
- Students are trained to use biological laboratory instruments in proper manner and are given hands-on technical training to assess biological diversity around them.
- Students are engaged in field excursions for gaining field knowledge of diverse biological varieties surrounding them.
- Students acquire awareness about biodiversity and become socially responsible environment-conscious citizens.